

13 October 2004

News Release

PrivatAir promotes two Team Members in US Private Charter Division

PrivatAir, an internationally leading business aviation company, is pleased to announce the promotion of two of its sales executives at PrivatAir's Stratford, CT U.S. headquarters. Charlene Brett, previously Sales Executive, was named Manager of Inside Sales, effective October 1st. Steve Vedekas, previously PrivatAir's US Operations Manager, was promoted to Manager of Aircraft Logistics.

Charlene and Steve are both members of PrivatAir Group and have contributed to the phenomenal results in the two quarters of 2004, which saw North American Private Charter budget surpassed by 30%.

Charlene Brett began her career in aviation insurance in 1991 before entering the world of aircraft charter with companies such as Atlantic Aviation and The Air Group, where she had the opportunity to work closely with both the inside charter sales teams and charter management clients. As National Marketing Director, she coordinated the efforts of the charter sales staff and the client retention team, as well as managing general marketing for the national sales offices. She joined PrivatAir's Charter Sales team in Teterboro in November 2002.

Steve, who began flying at age 14, holds a Commercial Pilot's License and has over 18 years experience in aviation. Prior to joining Flight Services Group in 1984, he worked as an Account Executive for a Wall Street firm.

Steve had a broad range of responsibilities within Flight Services Group before settling into his current position as Logistics Manager of PrivatAir in the USA.